Eco Adventures Presents: Calling All Animal Rescuers

Preschool-Teen

Yikes, there is an animal in trouble, and it needs our help! Honorary animal rescuers become part of a team involved in an important hands-on "mock" animal rescue operation. Be a vet, animal technician, lab assistant or a volunteer that lifts the stretcher and learn what it takes to make the whole operation work.

Success depends upon the team working together, trusting, believing and assisting each other during the rescue. Meet some of Eco Adventure's live rescued animals and learn what you can do to help.
